

Christmas traditions in Great Britain

Christmas in Great Britain begins on Christmas Eve (December 24th). Shops close, the holiday begins and people sing Christmas carols.

There are Christmas trees in all the houses.

Father Christmas comes in the night. He leaves small presents in stockings and big presents under the Christmas tree.

On Christmas Day they eat turkey and Christmas pudding and they open their presents.

