

Hurry up, Santa!

Santa says: „ I`m running late.
I know that Christmas cannot wait.
My wolly socks would be just right
For me to wear on this cold night.”

Into the kitchen Santa goes,
Wearing socks to warm his toes.
„ My hat is here, of that I`m sure,
Just behind this cupboard door.”

„ It`s getting late and I must hurry.”
Santa now begins to worry.
His belt is lost – where can it be?
He looks behind the Christmas tree.

„ Outside in the snow and ice
My big, black boots would be so nice.
Where did I put them, can you see?
Behind the sofa they could be.”

„ My scarf is needed for the flight
Into the cold and snowy night.
I know it`s somewhere very clean.
Is it in the washing machine?”

„ With my gloves I will be ready.
They help me keep the reindeer steady.
Under the table I can see
A present that is meant for me!”

Now Santa can deliver the toys
To all the little girls and boys.
