

This image displays a musical score consisting of four systems, each with four measures. The notation is as follows:

- System 1: Each measure contains a pair of eighth notes beamed together on a high staff line, followed by a single eighth note on a lower staff line. The first pair of notes in the first measure is highlighted with a white box.
- System 2: Each measure contains two eighth notes with stems, one on a high staff line and one on a lower staff line.
- System 3: Each measure contains two dotted eighth notes with stems, one on a high staff line and one on a lower staff line.

The image shows a musical score on a grid. The grid is composed of 8 columns and 5 rows. The bottom row of the grid is shaded light gray. A musical staff is drawn across the bottom row, consisting of five horizontal lines. The staff contains the following notes from left to right:

- Column 1: A pair of eighth notes, one on the second line and one on the first space.
- Column 2: A pair of eighth notes, one on the second line and one on the first space.
- Column 3: A pair of eighth notes, one on the second line and one on the first space.
- Column 4: A pair of eighth notes, one on the second line and one on the first space.
- Column 5: A pair of eighth notes, one on the second line and one on the first space.
- Column 6: A pair of eighth notes, one on the second line and one on the first space.
- Column 7: A pair of eighth notes, one on the second line and one on the first space.
- Column 8: A pair of eighth notes, one on the second line and one on the first space.

Additionally, there is a small, curved mark above the top line of the grid in the fifth column. A bass clef is positioned at the bottom of the staff in the fifth column.
